Brenda Harris - New Works

29th October - 26th November

Brenda Harris paints in oil and watercolour - her work is instantly recognisable by the rich opulence of her colour palette and the almost palpable sensation of light that illuminates each canvas. This exhibition of new works is hugely influenced by the landscapes of the south of France and the south east of Ireland, where Brenda has been dividing her time.

Tipperary Dance Residency

Tipperary Dance Residency, supported by South Tipperary County Council Arts Service and Tipperary Excel, continues to provide dance workshops for the community and schools as well as dance classes at Tipperary Excel in contemporary dance, tango, and wellness classes. The Residency is home to the Isele-Chiodi Dance Company, who create, perform and tour their repertoire internationally, and host other artists in collaboration - this autumn Mariana Bellotto from Argentina will transmit her solo Argentinita to Jazmin Chiodi.

Dance Platform

The South Tipperary Dance Residency is organizing a new and exciting event this November. For the first time, a public dance platform in South Tipperary will offer performances, dance video and workshops for teenagers. The Dance Platform is running 17th - 28th Nov. For a full programme contact Sally O'Leary, Arts Officer

The Dance Residency is supported by the Arts Council, South Tipperary County Council and the Tipperary Excel Arts and Cultural Centre

ReadABLE
Technologies
"Making access to reading happen for everyone"

READ/ABLE Technologies

A range of assistive reading and learning technologies is now available for use, free of charge, in libraries around Co Tipperary. This invaluable software can enlarge what appears on the screen and allow the user to edit and annotate the text. For people who are visually impaired it can help access virtually any printed or electronic publication by making text audible. The software is also of great value if you are learning a language. Your local library will arrange a demonstration.
